

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. This is a shameful business, not only in action, but it's implied lack of respect for the American people.

Regardless of anyone's political affiliation, all should agree that both sides of an issue deserve to be seen. Please keep the media honest about serving its community, not a fairly obvious corporate agenda.

Thank you for your time,

Sincerely,

Jeff Geiger